

Sharing about your IWD observance

How you observed International Women's Day is of special interest to Global Women! We would like you to share with us so that we can tell your IWD story and learn from each other. This will also help us know how to prepare next year's resource materials. Use additional paper, email us your results, send worship bulletins, articles, photos, etc.

What did you do?

Who was involved?

What was the response to what you did?

What would you like to do again?

How did you use GW resources?

What happens next?

What can GW provide to help you plan for 2011's observance?

If you know of those who would like to be added to our distribution list for eVOICES please have them send an email to globalwomen@globalwomengo.org.

If you know of those who would like to receive a print copy of our quarterly newsletter VOICES please send their names and addresses to GW via mail or email.

Be sure to visit our Web site often for updates on projects, things you can do at home, prayer needs, and other actions you can take to connect and empower women to transform our worlds.

Global Women is funded by the support of people like you and churches like yours. If you collected an offering for GW during your IWD observance we thank you! Please know that we welcome your financial support, at any level, throughout the year. Your gifts sustain our ministry and fund our projects.
